If Sheep Pulled The Sleigh

by Bill Barnsley • Illustrated by Mariano Epelbaum

In this whimsical and imaginative Christmas tale, the author explores the challenges and antics of sheep, goats, frogs, ostriches, dinosaurs, and robots attempting to pull Santa's sleigh on Christmas Eve. Sheep put Santa to sleep, goats eat the sleigh and presents, frogs might croak before delivering presents, and ostriches have second thoughts about the lunch invitation from cheetahs. Next, dinosaurs have no interest in anything but eating. Then, flying robots are unable to complete a long night of flying. Ultimately, it reinforces why reindeer are the perfect choice for Santa's sleigh.

Have You Filled a Bucket Today?

A GUIDE TO DAILY HAPPINESS FOR KIDS
(SPECIAL 20TH ANNIVERSARY EDITION)

by Carol McCloud
Illustrated by David Messing

"It's an important lesson to teach and remind us all . . . that showing kindness and appreciation of others goes a long way to making this world a happier place for everyone, including ourselves. A classic tale, beautifully told and beautifully shared."--Emily-Jane Hills Orford, Readers' Favorite Book Reviews.

The groundbreaking title that sparked a kindness revolution is now celebrating its 20th Anniversary with a oversized, limited hardcover edition, complete with a double sided dust jacket.

While using a simple metaphor of a bucket and a dipper, author Carol McCloud illustrates that when we choose to be kind, we not only fill the buckets of those around us, but also fill our OWN bucket! Conversely, when we choose to say or do mean things, we are dipping into buckets. All day long, we are either filling up or dipping into each other's buckets by what we say and what we do. When you're a bucket filler, you make the world a better place to be!

This book is perfect for children, parents, grandparents, teachers and people that want to teach empathy, nurture, kindness and create a positive environment in their home, classroom, workplace and community.

As far back as he can remember, young Grady has tramped from village to village in the company of a huckster named Floyd. The pair make a scant living by perpetrating hoaxes on the good citizens of the Corenwald frontier—all at Grady’s expense. After all, Floyd never gave a moment’s consideration to Grady’s feelings about being exhibited as “The Ugliest Boy in the World.”

But when Floyd stages an elaborate plot to revive Corenwalders’ belief in mythical swamp-dwellers known as the fechiefolk, he overshoots the mark: what starts as “The Great Feechie Scare” quickly becomes a widespread panic that threatens the whole countryside. Yet amid all the chaos, Grady discovers a truth that has evaded him all his life—and it will change his path forever.

Brightwing Tales: Acorn's Misadventure

by Ben Palpant

His old friend, Bear, was running away, heading into the unknown beyond Brightwing's border. Like a good friend, Acorn followed him into a world of shadow and sorrow—a cold and barren country where danger lurks at every bend in the path and where the only way home is through a river of tears.

Brightwing Tales: Mole's Misadventure

by Ben Palpant

In the tradition of Wind in the Willows and Green Ember comes an enchanting tale about Mr. Mole.

Mole did not set out to find adventure, it found him most inconveniently while he was smoking his pipe by the fire. Which is exactly what any self-respecting mole ought to do on a cold winter night.

When he set out for Rabbit's house, he had no idea it was the beginning of an unforgettable story. He certainly did not expect to get lost. Nor did he expect to face Midnight, the bloodthirsty dog. But that's how most good stories begin. Unexpectedly.
